

JOYCE SMITH MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Club de l'Épagneul Breton of the United States

The Joyce Smith Memorial Scholarship Fund was established to assist graduating high school students entering college to pursue an accredited course of study. The fund was created in honor and memory of Joyce Smith, a founding member of what is now the Club de l'Épagneul Breton of the United States. A memorial of Joyce's contributions can be found in issue 33, page 5, of the CEB-US club magazine L'Épagneul Breton as well as on the Épagneul Breton Foundation official website located at www.epagneulbretonfoundation.org (Select the Support Us website page and access the Scholarship tab).

Successful applicants will meet the following listed criteria:

- Graduate from high school during current academic school year
- Member of CEB-US as an individual youth or child of a family membership for the continuous past three (3) years.
- Student applicant can demonstrate substantial reasonable involvement with the Épagneul Breton over a sustained period of time by participation in breed related activities as set forth in the application. Substantial involvement may be further demonstrated by participation in other activities advocating and promoting the Épagneul Breton in publications, media, or via participation in school, agricultural or community organizations.
- Applicant will submit a written essay with a minimum of 1000 words and maximum of 3000 words, suitable for the club magazine, telling how the interaction with the Épagneul Breton has impacted his or her life.
- Applicant is accepted for admission and enters an accredited college or university.
- Application is received by deadline date of entry which is February 15 of the year in which the applicant will graduate and anticipate enrolling in college.
- Applicant shall submit three (3) to five (5) photographs suitable for publication which depict the applicant engaged in activities with Épagneul Bretons.

Application Form- Joyce Smith Memorial Scholarship

This Application Form, along with the Certification and Release/Acknowledgements Form to be signed by the Applicant and a Parent of Applicant must be completed by prospective applicants who are entering college freshmen and should be forwarded, with any supporting materials to the chairman of the Joyce Smith Memorial Scholarship Committee for CEB-US. Due date for submission is by February 15 of the year in which the applicant plans to enter college. The intent of the scholarship is to recognize young people who have been substantially involved with and made contributions towards advocating and advancing the interests of the Epagneul Breton breed and who have participated in the activities of CEB-US and affiliated regional clubs. The Scholarship Committee of CEB-US reserves the right in its discretion to award or withhold awarding the scholarship on an annual basis, based on the degree of demonstrated involvement with the Epagneul Breton and CEB-US and affiliated local clubs by prospective scholarship applicants. While involvement and advocacy for the breed may be demonstrated in many ways in addition to participation in shows or field trials, demonstration of reasonable involvement with the Epagneul Breton and participation in CEB-US and affiliated regional clubs over a sustained period of time prior to submission of this application are criteria which will be considered by the Scholarship Committee for awarding the scholarship.

The Essay portion of this application will be published in L'Épagneul Breton (the CEB-US semiannual magazine publication) along with a short article about any scholarship recipient. The scholarship is awarded annually to applicants deemed qualified by the Joyce Smith Memorial Scholarship Committee and is conferred on behalf of the Club De L'Épagneul Breton of the United States, Inc. ("CEB-US"). The scholarship fund is managed for investment and the scholarship proceeds are disbursed to approved applicants by The Epagneul Breton Foundation, Inc. which is an approved 501(c)(3) charitable entity under the regulations of the Internal Revenue Service of the United States.
